THE REASON

WHY

MOSELEY'S

IS SO POPULAR

WITH EVERYBODY:

1st. The coolest Soda Water is drawn from Daw's Patent, containing Frozen Cream and Shaved Ice.

2nd. THE LADIES PARLOR ICE-CREAM SALOON is here, and everything is so nice that the most fastidious cannot fail to be pleased.

3rd. MOSELEY supplies families with the best the market affords, and you can find a fresh supply always ready.

4th. Gents will find good CIGARS and TOBACCO always on hand.

BANKER CIGARS.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mehegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. They have become so universally popular in North Carolina, in Raleigh particularly, that all the inveterate smokers are breaking their pipes.

We honestly think two boxes of Mehegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

Pink Hardie is Agent for the Bankers, and says he has a letter from Mr. Mehegan, saying that the stock in them is better than ever. Go and try them.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

FRIDAY, AUGUST 5, 1870.

Election Returns.

We give below such reports of the election in this State yesterday, as we have been able to gather, up to the hour of going to press.

These reports are meagre but all indicate the redemption of the State from Radical rule and a Conservative Democratic Legislature. This is beyond a peradventure, if the results in these counties not heard from is of a character with that of the counties from which reports have been received.

WAKE.

We have not been able to get the returns from this county, as they were not all in up to a late hour this afternoon. The vote is very close and the impression is that we shall elect the two Senators for this county and Franklin, and perhaps two Commoners of this county. We will give the tabular statement of the vote to morrow.

The estimated majorities in 11 townships, viz: Raleigh, Franklins, Rolesville, Hutchinson's, Eagle Rock, White Oak, Cedar Fork, J. Adams, Barney Jones, Lashley's and Milbursie, results in favor of the Radicals 379; there are five precincts to hear from which will reduce, if they do not nullify this majority.

GRANVILLE.

But little from Granville. There is a Conservative gain of 49 at Kittrells and 140 gain at Henderson. Gilliam gets about 50 majority at Brassfield, heretofore a strong Radical precinct.

Granville, Brassfields, Shipp 26 majority, Gilliam 58 majority, Rogers 48 majority, Edwards for Senate 26 majority, Bradsher 29 majority. The Democratic candidates for the Legislature get majorities ranging from 11 to 40.

ROWAN.

SALISBURY, 12 M.

In Rowan Shipp's majority is 480—a gain of 232. The Conservatives all elected.

ALAMANCE.

Graham gives the Radicals 500 majority —(Kirk's work.)

GUILFORD.

11 o'clock, A. M.—In Guilford county the Conservatives are 200 ahead, and three precincts to hear from, gain of 900, if the gain is not reduced by the three precincts.

FRANKLIN.

Franklinton, 11 A. M.—Phillips 83 majority—Congress, Hawkins 79 and Harris 80 majority. Hawkins beats Davis for Senate 71, Olds beats Fowle 76; Harris, Rad., beats Harris, Dem., 83, Williamson beats Cook 76.

Louisburg vote.—Phillips 142 majority, Mad. Hawkins 140 majority, Harris for Congress 138 majority. P. B. Hawkins majority 136, Harris, Rad., beats Harris, Democrat, 127, Williamson, col., beats Cook 135.

Cedar Rock, 79 Conservative gain.

Cypress Creek 56 Conservative majority.

Freman's 10 Conservative majority—Radicals carried it in 1868 by a large majority.

MECKLENBURG.

A dispatch from Mecklenburg says, the Conservative majority will reach 200.

Charlotte, Mecklenburg county, Conservative majority 49, Conservative gain of 182.

CASWELL.

Pelham, Caswell county gives 4 Conservative majority.

JOHNSTON.

At Smithfield, Johnston county, the Radical majority is 150, the Rads claimed 250, and Beasley Conservative majority about 50—large Conservative gain.

Johnston County—Clayton 45 Conservative gain; Selma 24, and Boon Hill 20; the county is certainly Conservative by four or five hundred majority. Clayton gains 45, Conservative.

HALIFAX.

Littleton, Halifax county, Republican majority 82, a Conservative gain.

ORANGE.

Hillsboro, 11 o'clock.—Graham, Strudwick, Atwater and the whole Conservative ticket elected—three precincts to hear from. Shipp 1,217, Phillips 668. The precincts to hear from will not change the result.

NEW HANOVER.

New Hanover, Galloway, col., and McClammy, Conservative, probably elected to the Senate from New Hanover and Brunswick, a Conservative gain of one member. Waddell probably elected to Congress from third district.

CABARRUS COUNTY.

Eleven out of twelve townships heard from—Conservative majority from 50 to 150.

CRAVEN.

Craven county.—The majority for the Radicals in this county, from 1,500 to 1,700. There is a Radical loss of about 400 in Newbern.

DAVIDSON.

Davidson county. A dispatch from Thomasville says, Shipp's vote 255, Phillips' 131, Leach 248, Scott 151—for Senate, Robins 282, Allen 114. This shows a Conservative gain 239 over the Presidential vote of 1868.

WAYNE COUNTY.

GOLDSBOROUGH, Aug. 5th.

The election is close; Phillips' majority in Wayne is 23; Brogden's majority over Swift Galloway is 7. The Conservatives re-elect Smith to the House of Representatives by a small majority, and gain two County Commissioners. Radical majorities light, and the Conservatives will contest their election. About 100 spurious votes were cast by negroes. All the negro candidates on the Radical ticket defeated.

H.

HILLSBORO', N. C., Aug. 5.

MR. MOORE, SENTINEL Office:—I was arrested by Lieut. Hunnycutt this morning.

J. TURNER, JR.

LAWLESS ARREST OF THE EDITOR OF THIS PAPER.

The above telegram announces the fact of the arrest of Mr. TURNER, Editor of this paper, by order of Gov. Holden. No cause for the arrest has been assigned, indeed, none exists. The arrest has been made with a two fold view. One to gratify the malignity and vulgar vanity of an upstart who is Governor of the State by accident, and the other, to suppress the voice of the press in its exposition and denunciation of the crimes and outrages of Holden and his co-conspirators against public and private liberty. This is intended as a blow at Mr. TURNER, personally, because Holden hates and fears him, and at public liberty, by putting down the press.

The Governor has not the pretext that Mr. TURNER belonged to the Ku Klux; he knew he did not, indeed, that he never belonged to any secret society. So far from belonging to this society, or any society like it, he has denounced it and its outrages with unsparing hands, at the same time he denounced Union Leagues and their crimes and outrages.

The object of this arrest is that suggested above, and it is as cowardly as it is mean and revengeful.

We tell Mr. Holden, he is shouldering a load he will find it tolerably hard to carry, and unless we mistake the measure of Mr. TURNER he will see Mr. Holden according to law, unless he is assassinated, which is not improbable. In that event, he will leave behind him friends, who will vindicate his memory and the rights of his family—rest assured of that Mr. Holden.

Another thing, you may understand, you can't stop this press—it intends, at all hazards to expose your crimes and outrages and hold you up to the scorn and contempt of an outraged people.

SENTIMENTAL.—The wil-dog barks on the top of the hill and the lambs are skipping in glee; but I'm sad as the dickens. I am—my gal gave the mitts to me. Aw where will I go, and what will do? I feel like a crazy bumbee; by thunder. I'll fight! I'll lick any boy that says mitts to me! I'm really mad—be dogged if I ain't! I swear I will kill any she; I'll stabby and stash—I'll murder that gal—by thunder she shan't mitten me! No I won't do that—I'll spite her—I will! I'll hang myself on a big tree; and then she will cry—she'll die in remorse for giving the mitten to me.

HOLDEN'S WAR ON THE PEOPLE.

We have told the people more than once of the conspiracy of John Pool, Holden, Settle, Abbott and others, to carry the election yesterday by and through means of a lawless armed movement upon the people of this State. We gave an outline of the plan of operations and directed attention to the fact that the plan was steadily executed by its authors. So bold and devilish a scheme has never been set on foot in this country before, and it remains to be seen whether these desperate men will, in due time, be brought to justice.

Their plan could not have succeeded for twenty four hours, if they had not been "backed" by the President, and hence, one of their most important steps was to prepare the mind of the President to sustain them. This they did by making the most false, infamous and slanderous representations to the President about the people of the State. They told him that the great body of our people were hostile to the State and Federal government, and that they were secretly making war on them by and through the Ku Klux Klan; they represented that the Ku Klux Klan was a tremendous rebellious organization and that it embraced the leading and most influential citizens of the State—that these citizens participated in this alleged organization and directed its operations. They grossly and wilfully exaggerated the number and character of outrages perpetrated, and attributed them in most instances to unfounded motives and causes. They said that Union men and negroes could not live in any safety in the State. They made these and other like representations in the most fervid and fearful manner and for the purpose of inflaming and poisoning the mind of the President against our people. They told him further, that unless there was armed interference, the Union people and the negroes especially, could not vote yesterday—they made these representations not once, but often. Holden, Settle and others went to Washington about a month ago on purpose to confer with Pool, Abbott and others and invoke the armed aid of the President.

The President heard these false and infamous representations with a willing ear and promised to "back" them in their war upon our innocent and unoffending people, and forthwith the desperado Kirk is brought from Tennessee and the work of crime and outrage begins upon a scale at once monstrous and fearful. The Constitution and laws of the State have been subverted and the writ of habeas corpus set at nought, and many of the best citizens of the State have been arrested and are now held in armed close custody in places where the heat is almost suffocating—others have been arrested and hanged to make them confess—others have had cocked pistols placed against their head for the like purpose, and like outrages have been and are being perpetrated without number.

We speak what can be proven to the satisfaction of any Committee of Congress, or a judicial tribunal and by witnesses whose veracity cannot be questioned, that the President was informed by gentlemen of the highest public and the purest private character, persons whose love for the Union cannot be questioned, persons whom the President knew and in whom he knew he could confide, that the representations made to him by these conspirators against the people of this State, was false, slanderous and unfounded—that the number and causes of crimes and outrages were exaggerated, and that Union men and negroes were as safe here as anywhere in the Union. The President simply referred to what he had heard from Settle and others and was inexorable.

It was then suggested that there could be no justification for making whole innocent communities suffer for the guilty, and that the alleged offenders were few in number—but the President said that whole communities were responsible for offenders, and said further, that if Holden's armed movement was resisted, he would devastate the whole country where alleged offences had been committed. The President in pursuance of his promises to Holden & Co., has sent large numbers of well appointed troops here to be ready to obey his orders if the people should resist Holden's despotism.

How the President can justify his acts before the American people, we can't see. What he has thus done in, and for North Carolina, he may do for New York or Massachusetts or any other State, and the cause of North Carolina is their cause.

Our people would be willing for the American people to hear of them though the United States troops here and their officers. The people were glad when the troops came—they felt that through them they had some protection for life at least against Holden's militia and tyranny. The people believed that these troops and their officers had the impulses and courage of civilized men, and that they would not allow brutal and savage murder in their presence. The people were glad to see the troops sent by the President—but they condemned the motive that prompted the sending of them. We are for the present helpless and call upon the American people of all parties, having lives, liberties and property like ourselves to be protected or destroyed, to come to our aid.

We have not written these words for the purpose of creating sensation; our honest purpose has been and is, to let our helpless and fearful condition be known to those who may any day be brought to suffer like the people of North Carolina.

THE HEART OF THE WORLD.—A man's first care should be to avoid the reproaches of his own heart; his next to escape the censures of the world. If the last interferes with the former, it ought to be certainly neglected; but otherwise there can not be a greater satisfaction to a honest mind than to see those approbations which it gives itself seconded by the applauses of the Public. A man is more sure of his conduct when the verdict which he passes on his own behavior is thus warranted and confirmed by the opinion of all who know him.

FRANCE'S PET SOLDIERS.

THE ZEPHYRS THE CHASSEURS D'AFRIQUE, TURCOS AND SPAHIS.

[From the New York World.]

Besides the zouaves, of which a description has lately been given, the French army contains the following special corps:

THE ZEPHYRS.

They resemble the zouaves in their uniforms, arms, and equipment, and their organization and drill are almost the same; but while the zouaves are a crack corps and believe in military honor, such is by no means the case with the zephyrs. They are simply a corps of culprits and jail birds. If a soldier of the French army commits a vulgar and dishonoring crime, that is, if he robs, steals, cheats, or proves to be a coward, he is condemned to serve on the galleys; but if he only commits what might be termed a genteel crime, that is, if he commits manslaughter, or ravages a woman, or is insubordinate then he is condemned to serve in the corps of the zephyrs. They are permanently stationed in Africa, and the discipline among these rather dangerous and desperate characters is terribly severe. Every officer has the right to kill a zephyr on the spot should he show the least sign of insubordination, and to this circumstance they owe their name, which they have adopted themselves to express thereby of how little value their lives are, which at any time might die out like a zephyr. Their official appellation is Corps of Punishment, and they now number several thousand men. They paint themselves with blue ink all over their bodies in the most fantastical manner, and even the hardest punishment could not put a stop to this singular amusement, to which they seem to have taken, because they are not permitted to have eats, and get no pay. When General Pelissier was offered the command in the Crimea he accepted it only under the condition that the zephyrs would accompany him there, and that, if they should behave well, they were to be pardoned and permitted to return to their regiments. They were sent there, and their success was complete.

In the battle near Traktir, the Russians had formed a square which the Sardinian cavalry had vainly attacked, when General Bosquet, who then commanded them, advanced the zephyrs.

Some English officers requested him not to sacrifice his men uselessly, but General Bosquet made them a speech which commenced, "You sons of hell," and closed with "forward to the attack." With the war cry, Vive la Mort, instead of Vive l' Empereur, they swept into and over the Russian bayonets like a whirlwind, and soon their yataghans had made such a terrible havoc in the Russian lines that the most desperate exertions of the Russian officers were unable to avert defeat.

THE CHASSEURS D' AFRIQUE.

These are a cavalry corps consisting of four regiments. They carry a long rifle, two revolvers, and a sword, and are all mounted on select horses of the best Barbary blood. Their continuous service in Africa amongst and against the Bedouins has made them superior riders, and they perform all the feats on horseback in which the sons of the desert excel, and will ride at full gallop, turn in the saddle, and fire to the rear with precision. They also distinguished themselves during the Crimean war. General Allonvily, who commanded a corps of 1,500 Chasseurs d'Afrique, attacked with them 12,000 Russian dragoons, the favorite cavalry corps of the Emperor Nicholas, on the plain of Sabasteropol, and defeated them so completely that their commander, General Corff, committed suicide from shame.

THE TURCOS AND SPAHIS.

These are native African or Algerian corps, and consist exclusively of volunteers. The Turcos are light infantry, and come more particularly from the mountain regions of Algeria.

The Spahis are a cavalry corps, and are recruited amongst the Bedouins. Both the Turcos and Spahis are Mohamedans, but their officers are mostly Frenchmen. But they are not at all prohibited, on religious ground, from advancing to the highest military positions, and one of them, General Jussuff, now occupies a high position in the French army. There are three regiments of Turcos, or about 10,500 men, and three regiments of Spahis, or about 3,600 men.

THE FOREIGN LEGION.

There is at present but one regiment in existence containing representatives of all nationalities. The words of command are given in French. The officers are half French, half from other European nationalities. In their contracts with the French government it is distinctly understood that they are not obliged to serve outside of Algeria, and particularly not against their respective native countries. But they fought, nevertheless, in the Crimea, in Lombardy and in Mexico.

FAMILY CARES.

Ask the father and the mother, weeping over the coffin of their first-born and only child, whether they regret that the child was born. Ask them the same question in after years, when that little life has come to a thread of gold running through their experiences. If they give an affirmative answer, I will be silent. No, my married friends—you who will shrink from accepting the choicest privileges bestowed upon you—you are wrong; and if you live, you will arrive at a period where you will see that there are rewards and punishments attached to this thing. What is to sustain you when in old age—the charms of youth all past, desire extinguished, and the grasshopper a burden—you sit at your lonely board, and think of the strangers who are to enjoy the fruits of your most fruitless life? Who are to feed the deadening affections of your heart, and keep life bright and desirable to its close, but the little one whom you rear to manhood and womanhood?—What is to reward you for the toils of life, if you do not feel that you—your thought's, your blood, your influence—are to be continued in the future? Do you like the idea of having hirelings, or those who are anxious to get rid of you, about your dying bed? Is it not worth something to have a family of children whom you have reared, lingering about your grave, with tears on their cheeks and blessings on their lips—tears for a great loss, and blessings on the hallowed influence which has trained them in the path of duty, and directed them to life's noblest ends?

DIDN'T UNDERSTAND FRENCH.—The following story is told of an unlucky Englishman in Paris, who did not know a word of the polite tongue: "Seating himself in a restaurant he pointed to the first article on the bill of fare, and polite waiter brought him a fragrant plate of beef soup. When it was dispatched he pointed to the second line. The waiter brought him a vegetable soup. 'Rather more soup than I want,' he thought, 'but this is Paris fashion.' He duly pointed to the third line, and a plate of tapioca broth was brought him.—Again to the fourth, and was furnished with a bowl of preparation of arrow root. He tried the fifth line and was supplied with gruel kept for invalids. He determined to get as far from soup as possible. He pointed in despair to the last article on the bill of fare. The waiter politely handed him a bunch of tooth-picks! This was too much; the Englishman paid his bill and left."

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

MR. HILBORO, I have been respected in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this state who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this state, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

CONGRESS, 4TH DISTRICT.—Hon. S. H. Rogers, from all indications, is elected to the 42nd Congress by from 500 to 800 majority, and Hon. R. B. Gilliam by about the same.

Edward Johnson late Solicitor for the Ætna Life Insurance Company, died suddenly on the 4th inst., at Wentworth, Rockingham county, N. C.

SENATOR POOL.—This gentleman, who misrepresents North Carolina in the United States Senate, was arrested, a few evenings ago, in this city on a capias. He gave bail, and went on his way rejoicing (!) to reinforce his friend Holden at the approaching crisis in the fate of Radicalism in the old North State. Cannot the Senator imitate Porter and get Congress to make a bust over him; but, perhaps this is the last thing he would like, just now in this connection.—Norfolk Virginian.

CASWELL.

The situation at Yanceyville has not changed that we hear. Those prisoners arrested by Kirk on his advent into the county are still held in custody, notwithstanding that writs were issued for their bodies by Judge Pearson, and we are told that Kirk contion s daily to have prominent citizens arrested who may go to Yanceyville on business. Last Sunday he sent armed men to Bethel Church, who took John B. Blackwell out of the meeting-house and carried him off to their prison.—The election in North Carolina will be over to-morrow, and it is hoped Holden and Kirk will then stop this tyranny.—Danville Register.

SERENADE TO HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA., August 3.—Hon. Jefferson Davis, Governor Walker, and ex-Senator James M. Mason, were serenaded last night. Governor Walker responded briefly, regretting the dismemberment of Virginia. Mr. Mason being sick, did not respond. Mr. Davis said:

"My friends, accept my thanks for your kindness. Thrown like a wave upon life's shore, I have always met with that kind treatment at the hands of Virginians which is an evidence more of your generosity than of my own merit. Even in the lowest borders of Virginia I have met with the warmth of a bright welcome. May God in his mercy bless you and keep you from every ill. May your prosperity be as wide as your borders, and may your homes be peace, is the earnest prayer of him who has no more to say to you on this occasion."—[Cheers.]

Mr. Davis is looking remarkably well, and is in fine spirits. Though very retiring, he has had to undergo the hand-shaking ordeal from all here.

THE WAR AND COTTON.

The St. Louis Democrat has an article on the question "Will the war cause cotton to decline?" and says: This is a question which is now agitating thousands. We claim no infallibility of prophecy, yet we feel strongly impressed with the conviction that the question should be answered in the negative. Of course no account is to be taken of the first perturbations in markets, which become apparent upon the outbreak of a gigantic war. These are, more or less, the result of panicky feelings, often purposely intensified by market manipulators, and give no indication of what the permanent state of the market may be. Now, as far as regards the status of cotton during the war, we reason that the demand for fabrics will be fully as great throughout the civilized world as if the world enjoyed peace, and our experience has shown, that war times are periods of great waste, and we presume the same improvidence will attend the operations of the contending armies of Europe. We expect, therefore, an augmented demand and an increase in the price of cotton, rather than a closing of factories and a serious decline, as many a one to-day.

This country will be a neutral, and will run every loom, lathe, forge and furnace she possesses to their fullest capacity, if the war is even of six months duration, and the prospects are that it will be of much greater length. Should all of Germany, Russia, Austria, Italy, Denmark and France be drawn into the war, millions of men would be engaged in destroying fabrics as well as lives, very rapidly. These fabrics must be replaced promptly. Soldiering is destructive to clothes, as all soldiers know, and the raiment thus worn out must be manufactured somewhere. England will do a large part of this manufacturing, and will demand increased quantities of cotton to do it with. We shall also do a large share of it, and our home consumption will be much larger than it has been since the war. In short, we cannot see any reason for supposing that cotton will decline, while other products will advance.

False Pretences.

The vast and continually increasing sales of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have provoked the envy of a certain class of dealers in various parts of the country, who are trying to substitute their utterly worthless local nostrums for the most popular proprietary medicine in the world. These imposters hope by their false statements to obtain from the millions who patronize the great American Tonic, a sufficient number of customers to make their speculations upon the health of their neighbors profitable. As the demand for Hostetter's Bitters is now so large and urgent as to try to their fullest extent the facilities for its manufacture, these petty attempts to write in the merest trash by false representations are of little consequence to its proprietors. They are, however, a serious evil to the victimized. If, for example, at this warm season, when a real invigorant is greatly needed, the sufferer from general debility, indigestion, biliousness or nervous weakness, is coaxed into using a wishy-washy compound without any medicinal virtue, instead of the sovereign specific in which the rarest tonic and alterative vegetable elements are scientifically combined, it is obvious that he will rue the day when he allowed himself to be thus deluded. It is in the interest of parties who have been or may be influenced by the persuasion of plausible charlatans, that this article is published. With the light of twenty years experience to guide him, why should the invalid take a leap in the dark.

From the N. Y. Times, (Rep.) Aug. 2nd.

GOV. HOLDEN AND COL. KIRK.

The troubles in North Carolina have assumed a phase which renders an interpretation of their real character comparatively easy. At an earlier stage they suggested a contest between the local Executive and the enemies of law in limited portions of the State. They now exhibit the Governor as the enemy of law, and as the arbitrary, unrestrained military ruler of a State in which civil authority should be supreme.

We are not unmindful of crimes that have thus far gone unpunished in certain localities in the State. There have been murders, robberies, and outrages in various forms, whose perpetrators have not been arrested, or, if arrested, have been dealt with too leniently by the local administrators of justice. Here and there the "Ku Klux" have made their appearance, have committed some unlawful act, and have then easily escaped. If, however, on one hand there has been mischief, on the other there certainly has been exaggeration. The population of North Carolina are not wholly unknown; and they are known not to be either thieves or assassins or the aiders and abettors of robbery and murder.—Among them, as among ourselves, crime may be organized and defiant; but after all the criminals are an insignificant minority, and for their presence or for their acts the entire community ought not to be held responsible. The distinction which here is recognized as a matter of course has there been ignored. Entire communities have been arraigned for outrages committed by a few. The outrages themselves have, in many instances, been magnified; in others, a political significance has been attached to incidents of the most ordinary nature. Injustice has thus been done to a people whose general respect for law is as well established as that of the people of Kansas, and whose depressed and embarrassed circumstances constitute a claim upon our generosity which should be felt even in political controversy.

Apart from all qualifying considerations, however, we shall insist that as against these criminals the law shall be enforced. If the every day machinery of justice is insufficient for their detection, let its capacity be increased for the emergency. But let the increase be regulated by the law, and be in all cases subject to its authority. There is no reason whatever to suppose that the State, or any part of it, is in a condition of anarchy, or that any necessity existed for the employment of extra judicial measures. Gov. Holden was passive quite long enough to prove that even in his judgment no extraordinary difficulty required his attention. He had looked on and done nothing. If, then, the authors of outrages gradually acquire a certain daring, the result of temporary impunity, it is fair to assume that the Governor is in some degree responsible. It was competent for the Governor to strengthen the arm of justice, and to secure the arrest and punishment of known offenders, while retaining the moral support of the State and the country.

Gov. Holden has chosen another course, and one so flagrantly wrong that it is impossible to respect his motives, and at the same time credit him with a judgment befitting his position. We must conclude either that he is playing the part of a reckless partisan, and without regard to decency or right is preparing to control the State election on Thursday,—or that, yielding to bad advisers, he forgets his duty to the people whose servant he is, to the State whose interests and honor he has sworn to protect, and to the law whose majesty is superior to even his pretension. One or the other of these conclusions seems inevitable. How else shall we comprehend the hasty proclamation of martial law, the organization of motley troops—not the lawful militia—under the command of a Tennessee Colonel, the refusal to obey orders of regular Courts, the arrest of citizens without trial—and, finally, the declared purpose to try these prisoners by a military Court, with a man not far removed from an outlaw at its head?

It is not possible to watch without indignation the progress of the record which Gov. Holden is making for his own condemnation. The method he has adopted for organizing troops—the neglect of the constitutional provisions in this respect, and the departure from the non-partisan attitude becoming a matter at once so delicate and momentous—may account for the aversion with which these troops are viewed by the people generally. They are a partisan force, under the direction of Col. Kirk, whose antecedents are odious, and whose character and temper display the license, recklessness, and cruelty of an unbridled partisanship. This man Kirk Gov. Holden has invested with many of the powers of a military dictator in the couties that are unhappily subject to his sway.—His will is warrant enough for the arrest of respectable citizens; he keeps them prisoners without informing them of the cause of their arrest; he threatens to shoot officers of the law who may enter his camp with writs of habeas corpus; and on at least one well-attested occasion, he inflicted torture upon a prisoner. For these infamies, Gov. Holden is responsible. He asserts practically that the habeas corpus act is suspended, though the Chief Justice decides that it is not; and he has so overawed another of the judges that his Court shrinks from a contest in which the material power of the Government is arrayed against the officers of justice and the moral power of the law. The whole spectacle is disgraceful to the Governor and humiliating to the country. For it shows that the Executive of a reconstructed State may usurp functions not contemplated by the Constitution under which he was elected, and may become the despotic master of a people whom he is supposed to serve.

It is unfortunate that the Governor, who has placed himself above the law, is nevertheless able to boast of the support of the Government of the United States. For what purpose are national troops sent into North Carolina? Infamous as Holden's orders are, infamous as the conduct of his minion, Kirk, has been, we have yet to hear of the first attempt at armed resistance to either. There is martial law without an insurrection,—a great display of military force to crush insurgents who have no visible existence. There is no conceivable use for the United States troops now in the State—unless it be to keep guard at the polls on Thursday in the interest of Holden. But are bayonets proper adjuncts of the ballot box, even in North Carolina? Can President Grant have properly studied the position in North Carolina when he allowed Holden to make United States soldiers the instruments of a cruel tyranny?

WHAT A DRINK COSTS.

The New York World has been figuring up the cost of an occasional drink, and says:

"Once in a while a pensive man may be heard to say, 'I wish I had all the money back that I have spent for drinks for the past ten years.' No one man in twenty, who, retrospective gazing, gives utterance to that wish, has in his mind any approximating estimate of the amount of which a person of even moderate bibulous propensities may spend upon drinks in the space of ten years. Leaving wines and expensive liquors out of the question, let us see what a plain cocktailist, or modest imbiber of old rye, is likely to disburse on his favorite refreshments in the course of a year.

Take a very moderate man for example. Assume that he drinks every day one glass of ale at ten cents, and four glasses of whiskey at fifteen cents. That amounts to seventy cents a day, which makes four dollars and ninety cents a week. Multiply by four and you have $19 60 a month, which comes to $235 20 a year. Thus, if the man who had gone on at this rate for ten years had his money back, his pocket would be inflated to the tune of two thousand three hundred and fifty-two dollars.—This is only a small beer calculation; but think of those who spend five times this sum on liquors, and remember that their name is legion."

NEW YORK, August 5.—Real was bung at 9 o'clock

PARIS, August 5.—It is reported that Saar Louis was captured after a great battle.

BERLIN, August 5.—A dispatch dated near Wessenburg at 6 o'clock Thursday evening says, that we have won a brilliant but bloody victory. The left wing made the attack. It consisted of the 5th and 11th Prussian corps and the 2nd Bavarian. This force carried by assault, under the eyes of the Prince Royal, the fortress of Wessenburg and the heights between Wessenburg and Geisberg.

Dunay's division of Marshal McMahon's corps was splendidly defeated, being driven from its camp. General Dunay himself was killed. Five hundred prisoners taken. Many Turcos were among the captured. The Prussian General Kirchbach was slightly wounded. The Royal Grenadiers and the fifth regiment of the line suffered heavy loss.

LONDON, August 5.—The Prussians captured one cannon at Wessenburg. The French left General Dunay dead on the field. The rumored capture of Saar Louis is unconfirmed. The Prussians saved engines, cars, &c., from Saarbruck.

A correspondent of the Times, for whose trustworthiness and neutrality the Times vouches, says that the French at Saarbrucken captured no cannon.

The French lost forty killed and sixty wounded. The French force employed was 30 000; the Prussians employed 6 000. Artillery won the fight. Little infantry and no cavalry was employed.

There was a grand illumination by Garde Medie at Chalons over the capture of Saarbrucken. There had been previously a slight sign of insubordination, which favorable news from the front ended.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the pens upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AN. TWENTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work, Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Miss Tompkins' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Dose for dose, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

'SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (as is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 18th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration The safety of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash values of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the Brooklyn Life.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Piny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
